PRESIDENT'S FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE ADVISORY BOARD

September 9, 1982

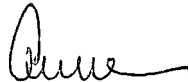

Dear Bill:

Thank you so very much for the hospitality extended to the Board yesterday. Your frankness and forthrightness before the Board was stimulating as always, and the information passed to us by your staff including John McMahon, Clare George, [redacted] were excellent.

The luncheon was delicious and delightful. It was nice to be there on Leo's birthday, and we were especially glad to hear the news concerning Bill Baker and the National Security Medal.

Again, let us thank you for a most productive day. Please extend our appreciation to [redacted] and [redacted] for the splendid arrangements.

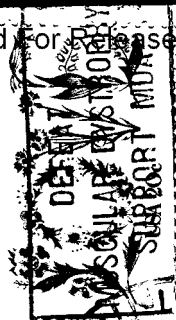

Sincerely,

Anne Armstrong
Chairman
